WINDERMERE AGENTS RAISE THOUSANDS FOR CHARITY

Palm Springs, CA, April 5, 2010 -- Windermere agents Denise Anderson (Palm Springs Main office) and Jonathan Wilson (Palm Springs South office) spearheaded efforts to raise thousands of dollars for charity by donating Easter Baskets to the Palm Springs Board of Realtors Easter Basket Auction.

Windermere won two of the three awards given out during the event: Most Creative and Highest Dollar Bid for a Basket and also won the award for top dollar for the entire event. Two baskets and other items donated by Windermere agents raised $2340 for The Well in The Desert, Girls & Boys Club Cathedral City, Girls & Boys Club of Desert Hot Springs, The Mizell Center, and Desert Family Services. The funds will be presented along with other monies raised, at the Palm Springs Regional Association of Realtors meeting on Wednesday, April 21, at 8:00 am.

“The generosity of our Windermere agents is especially important this year when all of our five charities are struggling with many more people in need and far fewer donations due to the economy. We are so pleased to be able to help the charities that our Palm Springs Regional Association of Realtors supports - including The Well in the Desert, The Boys & Girls Clubs of Desert Hot Springs and Cathedral City, The Mizell Center and Desert Family Services. It makes us proud to be part of Windermere,” says Windermere Palm Springs South Broker Bryan Arnold.
